

How much does three dimes a day amount to per month? About $10. Did you know that's all it takes to learn Hebrew with me at www.holylanguage.com? Just three dimes a day? AAAAAHHH talk about affordable!

We're on a subscriber push right now and I'm asking you to join our tribe by subscribing. Even if you don't have time to do the lessons right now - if you like the work we're doing through Holy Language Institute, would you take thirty seconds right now to subscribe? It'll be an affordable little way on your side to encourage us in a HUGE way and keep us going. Do it here. Thanks so much!

We're reading Deuteronomy 4 for Hebrew Chapters this week. In this episode I unpack the Hebrew terms for disciple, passion, mercy, and unite. Watch and share the trailer here, and join me for the whole study here!

Meet Mikael, one of our students in Sweden. Here's his story.

I started drinking at the age of 12. I was sober some years, but when I was depressed or down I always returned to alcohol. And then I had be drinking for months, drunk for weeks. I met a pastor in my youth around 17 years old. It was a pentecostal church. I got saved and started working as an evangelist in the church.

I got married, and then I started drinking again. Divorced after 11 years and continued to drink. A couple of years ago I stopped drinking because of love, not for my own sake, but for love. I went to a school to study theology to become a pastor. I studied psychology, sociology and the history of the church etc. I quit the school because I realized that I have alot of issues since my childhood. And I started to blame God of course for everything. I was angry at him for everything, our Christian history with crusades and all those horrible things. And I was very angry how we humans had treated the Jews throughout history. Especially us Christians. Even Luther condemned the Jews in his later books.

So what did I do, started drinking again. And this time I couldn't stop. November 18th last year I sat in a sofa drinking from a bottle and thought to myself: I can't go on like this, I had thoughts of killing myself. I thought I was an atheist. But I was afraid to die and meet God. So I went to AA the following tuesday the 20th. And from then I have been sober for my sake. But the thing was, I was tired of the Bible. I didn't want to read it. I had so many questions about mainstream Christian dogmas and stuff I was so disappointed at.

So I thought that I will pick up where I left of with my last attempt to study Hebrew. I wanted to read the Tanakh, Torah in its original language. And I came across your site through YouTube.

And your classes have brought new life and light into my life. I feel humbled and longing for God again. This was totally lost, totally. And I feel so excited to learn Hebrew and can't wait to dive in to the Torah and learning new words and meanings and with a white sheet learning again from the beginning in the original holy Hebrew language what God ment for this world and me.

I have gone through the 6 classes and I must say I have gotten a more respectfull attitude towards the Hebrew language. I can honestly say that I now believe that Hebrew is a holy language. There isn't wisdom enough on this earth to construct a language this deep and mysterious. I feel like I have just touched the tip of an iceberg.

Anyway, I'm so excited I had a little private study of the words ??and ??, father and son. Then I put them together and reversed: ???and ???, even and nava which can be translated to "cornerstone" and "prophesy". And if you reverse father you get the word "entrance". Through the Son we have entrance to God. And these 3 letters prophesy that he's the cornerstone of the Father's house that last forever. Alef = leader, Bet = house and Nun = always, no end. I'm so excited, I can't sleep! Thanks Izzy for your incredible teaching! As I work as a programmer I got a little carried away with this pattern finding thing.

*Sincerely,
Mikael*

I love hearing from my students and sharing your stories! Could I share your story, too? Just reply and tell me how you started following Yeshua and studying Hebrew, and then how you found us and how it's all going! Attach a picture of yourself, and I'll share it with the tribe. Don't do it for you, do it because your story glorifies God! Thank you!
